

Secretary: Maintains effective records and administration; this includes assisting in the organization of the meetings, taking minutes and circulating them as directed by the board.