

Mission Statement: Since 1984, the mission of the Northern Michigan Women's Club has been to learn and to serve; to learn without prejudice or judgement about the people and organizations in our community, and to serve those in need.

Northern Michigan Women's Club Board of Directors Nominations

Your Nominations Committee is writing to you to make sure you know that several leadership positions are up for election at our September meeting. We want to encourage anyone interested in running to contact any of the Nominations Committee members below.

Nomination for the Board of Directors

Group of individuals who are elected to govern and oversee the club's operations. The board is responsible for setting the mission, strategy, goals and ensuring that the club operated in compliance with legal and ethical standards.
