WOMEN'S CLUB

February Meeting Offers Some Great Reading Ideas

Women's Club members are definitely book readers, given the turnout for the Feb. 10 meeting featuring Katie Boeckl from Between the Covers Bookstore in Harbor Springs. The 30 members present enjoyed Katie's mini review of 13 books popular with BTC's customers over this past year.

- The Readers' Room by Antoine Laurain
- The Midnight Library by Matt Haig
- Furious Hours by Casey Cep
- Transcendent Kingdom by Yaa Gyasi
- The Pull of the Stars by Emma Donoghue
- The Best Presidential Writing edited by Craig Fehrman
- Sin Eater by Megan Campisi
- Sea Wife by Amity Gaige
- One Day by Gene Weingarten
- Leave the World Behind by Runaan Alam
- Better Luck Next Time by Julia Clairborne Johnson
- Nothing to See Here by Kevin Wilson
- The Removed by Brandon Hobson

The winters of the three $25 gift certificates for BTC are: Susan Raisanan, Sandra Para and Carrie Corbin.

The March 10 Women's Club will meet on Zoom and start at 1 p.m.
Speaker: Carrie Farley, from Cutlers in Petoskey

Board Notes:

Membership for 2021-2022: As soon as our state is given the green light for gatherings, we will resume our monthly luncheons and speakers, and we already have many great ideas for speakers. We are not sure exactly when that will be, but we sincerely hope you will want to resume meeting and enjoying each other's company over a nice meal and an interesting talk.

Almost a full year has passed since we have been able to meet in person, so the board would like to get an approximate idea of how to plan ahead by knowing how many of our 2019 members will remain. In the days ahead, you will receive an email regarding your membership, so please watch for it.

Committees: Rita Gaynor and Julia Kort are the co-chairs for the new Fundraising Committee. Please contact them if you would like to serve on this important committee. Sandra Miller and Carol Kaptrosky will serve as the Scholarship co-chairs.
