Art Fair Cancellation Update

Because of Governor Whitmer's stay-at-home order, the 2020 Art Fair was canceled. As a result, the committee is contacting the artists to arrange for refunds.

While no decision has been made yet about whether to hold an Art Fair in 2021, the committee has been discussing various fundraising ideas.

Lexie Brummeler, chair, has also contacted various organizations that included publicity about this year's fair to let them know of the cancellation.

Looking into Meeting Options

Given the continuation of the stay-at-home order though June 12, the committee is trying to reschedule the programs that had been planned over the past few months.

Isabel Colley, chair, hopes some of the speakers will be available later in the year. Even though restaurants are now allowed to open, the safe distancing order makes it difficult for a large group like the Women's Club to meet in any local venue.

The committee will also be looking into the possibility of holding meetings on Zoom.

Programs Planned (pre stay-at-home order)

*May: Dr. Chris Jeffries
Plastic surgery*

*June: Jania Taylor
Women Magicians*

*August: Charlotte Howell
Living in Antarctica*

*September: David Kaplan
Musicians on the Titanic*
